

MUST HAVE

Something for the weekend, sir?

OUR lifestyles and climate have gently morphed over the past few years; so much so that the idea of owning a scooter is no longer a pipedream. Tomos make a welcome return to the UK and for a lithe £1395 you too can be zipping around town on this speedy, environmentally-friendly moped. Hashtag GoOffline is their motto — cheekily reminding people that there is a world outside of the internet. We don't mind, we're in agreement because it's all about being a city-slicker in October, as we cling on to the flickering sun and begin to layer up for the winter.
